Founded in Bologna by Dante Ognibene for the production and distribution of industrial/motorcycle sprockets.

The company specializes in chain transmission, becoming a market leader in the commercialization and assembly of customized chains. Ognibene becomes the official distributor for Italy of the brands Arnold & Stolzenberg and D.I.D.

Ognibene patents the silent sprockets for motorcycles.

Ognibene strengthens its presence in the motorcycle sector by becoming an official partner of Ducati for original equipment (OEM).

Ognibene and Sense Advance s.r.l. integrate for the CNC (Computer Numerical Control) machining of customized chains.

Ognibene expands its production facility for the development of customized chains.

Ognibene invests in the digitalization of its distribution center.
